

Canada

WORKSHEET A

Exercise 1

Below are ten pieces of information about the country of Canada that have been split into three parts and mixed up. Can you put them back together again?

1	The capital of Canada, Ottawa, is probably less	only 33 million. This means there are	in water, and are well known for building dams across streams.
2	An animal called a beaver is one of the national	very cold, and in some parts of the country the	cities of Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver.
3	Canada is the second largest country in the world,	live in the south of the country, less than 200km from	countries in the world.
4	In winter almost all of Canada is	well known than the larger	times larger than Britain.
5	Canada is a rich	symbols of Canada. They are mammals that spend a lot of their time	the highest in the world.
6	Although it is a huge country, its population is	many different places, and has therefore become one of the most multicultural	the border with the United States.
7	One of the most popular	after Russia, and is forty	first language live in the province of Quebec.
8	More than three-quarters of Canadians	French. Most Canadians who speak French as their	hockey.
9	Canada receives a lot of immigrants from	sports in Canada is ice	fewer than four people per square kilometre.
10	The official languages of Canada are English and	country with a 'quality of life' that is among	temperature never rises above freezing.

Canada

WORKSHEET B

Exercise 2

The ten pieces of information have been put back together again below. However, only three of them are written correctly, and the other seven each contain three mistakes. Decide which sentences are incorrect, and then correct them.

1. The capital of the Canada, Ottawa, is probably less well know than the largest cities of Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver.
2. An animal called a beaver is one of the national symbols of Canada. They are mammals that spend a lot of their time in water, and are well known for building dams across streams.
3. Canada is the second largest country in the world, after Russia, and is fourty time large than Britain.
4. At winter almost all of Canada is very cold, and in some parts of the country the temperature never rise above freazing.
5. Canada is rich country with a 'quality of live' that is among highest in the world.
6. Although it is a huge country, its population is only 33 million. This means there are fewer than four people per square kilometre.
7. One of the most popular sports in Canada is ice hockey.
8. More than three-quarters of Canadiens lives in the south of the country, less than 200km from the border with the United State.
9. Canada receives a lot of immigrant from much different places, and has therefore became one of the most multicultural countries in the world.
10. The office languages of Canada are the English and French. Most Canadians who speak French as their first language live on the province of Quebec.

---

Canada

WORKSHEET C

1. The capital of Canada, Ottawa, is probably less well known than the larger cities of Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver.
2. An animal called a beaver is one of the national symbols of Canada. They are mammals that spend a lot of their time in water, and are well known for building dams across streams.
3. Canada is the second largest country in the world, after Russia, and is forty times larger than Britain.
4. In winter almost all of Canada is very cold, and in some parts of the country the temperature never rises above freezing.
5. Canada is a rich country with a 'quality of life' that is among the highest in the world.
6. Although it is a huge country, its population is only 33 million. This means there are fewer than four people per square kilometre.
7. One of the most popular sports in Canada is ice hockey.
8. More than three-quarters of Canadians live in the south of the country, less than 200km from the border with the United States.
9. Canada receives a lot of immigrants from many different places, and has therefore become one of the most multicultural countries in the world.
10. The official languages of Canada are English and French. Most Canadians who speak French as their first language live in the province of Quebec.